

ACTUARIAL SOCIETY OF MALAYSIA PRESENTS

Evaluating Takaful as an Investor

Monday July 13, 2020 11.00AM - 12.15PM

NURUL SYUHADA NURAZMI (CAS)
Partner
Actuarial Partners Consulting

EMA ZAGHLOL
Principal
Actuarial Partners Consulting

This session aims to address questions an investor unfamiliar to takaful could have in evaluating a takaful venture; such as:

- What is takaful?
- How does takaful compare to insurance?
- What are the takaful operational models commonly used in Malaysia against those around the world?
- How would the cash flows of takaful compare to those of insurance?
- What are some of the challenges and opportunities of takaful as a business investment?

SPEAKER PROFILE

Nurul Syuhada Nurazmi is among the first in Malaysia to qualify as a Fellow of Casualty Actuarial Society (FCAS). Her expertise in general (re)insurance and (re)takaful ranges from Appointed Actuary and Pricing Actuary roles in valuation and pricing respectively, to due diligence work on M&A as well as feasibility studies on set-up of takaful operations. She has also conducted independent assessments of ICAAP and ITCL, and provided independent reviews on reserves adequacy and valuation processes. On IFRS17, her work involves cash flow modelling and financial impact study, as well as conducting training and workshop on IFRS17.

Emma Zaghlol joined Actuarial Partners in 2009. She graduated from the London School of Economics (UK) and is presently pursuing her final paper under the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries, UK. Her consulting experience has mainly been in the valuation of actuarial liabilities for general (re)insurance and (re)takaful companies and the pricing of Medical products in Malaysia. She also has extensive experience in appraisal valuations and due diligence exercises of numerous insurance and takaful companies (both within and outside Malaysia). More recently, she has been involved in IFRS17-related projects, including the development of fulfillment cash flows models for general insurance and co-speaking at an IFRS17 workshop in Thailand.
